Proceedings of weekly meeting of Judicial Officers, Jorhat
District Judiciary, held at 4:30 PM, on 19.01.2023.

(Learned officers of Titabar joined through video conferencing)

Agenda Items:

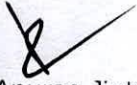

1. Can an accused, detained in judicial custody in a sessions triable case, be released on PR bond by a magistrate after he has been granted bail on completion of statutory detention period?

After much deliberation it was observed that a magistrate cannot change the order of bail which was granted to an accused person in judicial custody under a sessions triable case on completion of statutory detention period. It was further observed that there is no legal presumption of holding such an accused person to be indigent as is available to an accused person who alleged to have committed a bailable offence. In the end, it was advised by Hon'ble District and Sessions Judge Sir, that a magistrate may direct such an accused who cannot furnish surety to communicate with DLSA in order to move a petition before sessions court for modification of a bail order and for change in the conditions of bail.
